

Ninth Annual Wild and Wet Invitational

Cameron High School--Cameron, WV

October 11, 2008

The Cameron High School Cross-Country team invites you to participate in the Wild and Wet Invitational. So named because of the four water crossings and several log jumps. This course is very spectator friendly with at least two miles of the race visible from one point. Coaches will be able to monitor their athletes without restriction. Approximately one mile will be run on trails and the rest on a partially built golf course. There will be an open race, junior high race (if enough interest), varsity and reserve races
